All the good times are past and gone, All the good times are o'er
G C G D G
All the good times are past and gone, Little darling don't you weep no more.

I wish to the Lord I'd never been born, Or died when I was young
I never would have seen your sparkling blue eyes, Or heard your lying tongue.

Don't you see that turtle dove, That flies from pine to pine?
He's mourning for his own true love, Just like I mourn for mine.

Don't you see that passenger train, Going around the bend?
It's taking away my own true love, To never return again.

Come back, come back my own true love, And stay a while with me
For if ever I've had a friend in this world, You've been a friend to me.
