

Bad Boy

Bryan Bowers

IV-9

Bad boy was headed for work, well he wasn't where he wanted to be	G
He was takin' a little shortcut, when he saw that money tree	C D
Bad boy braked to a halt and he dug in his pockets for change	G C G
He called in sick and told the boss that the flu had him doubled in pain	C G D ₇ G

Bad boy looked that tree up and down and he went up and rang the bell	G
Swore to the lady at the door if the tree fell it'd be hell	C D
Bad boy told her "it's dangerous, but you're lucky that I'm so nice	G C G
'Cause I'll cut it down for you cheap," then he doubled the normal price	C G D ₇ G

A Cappella:

Bad boy cut that tree on down, told the lady it was no good to burn
 Said for an extra hundred, it'd be gone when she returned
 Bad boy took that walnut tree in eight-foot lengths to the mill
 He cut it up and sold it all and he's laughin' about it still

Chorus:

Oh , bad boy, you are bad	G C
You're so low down that you lie to old ladies	G D
Oh , bad boy, you are bad	G C
There's sunshine on the grass where for years it was shady	G D ₇ G
