

BLUEGRASS BOOGIE

Bluegrass Song by Richard Matteson. CATEGORY: Fiddle and Instrumental Tunes DATE: 2002; RECORDING INFO: Bluegrass Messengers from "Bluegrass Boogie" CD; NOTES: Written with fiddle lyrics. Performed twice with Doc Watson.

Grease your skil-let Grease it right, Turn up heat we're gon-na dance all night. Dance the Blue - grass Boo - gie Sing the Blue - grass Boo - gie The Blue - grass Boo - gie gon - na raise a ru - kus to - night Dance all night with Sal - ly Ann, Do - si - do give the fid - dl - er a dram Chase that pos - sum chase that squirrel chase that pret - ty girl 'round the world.

© 2002 by Richard Matteson.
All Rights Reserved. Used by Permission.

G G7
Grab your gal, swing her in the air, When she comes down, I don't care
C G
Dance the Bluegrass Boogie, sing the Bluegrass Boogie
D G
The Bluegrass Boogie gonna raise a ruckus tonight
C G
Chorus: Dance all night with Sally Ann, Do-si-do give the fiddler a dram
C
Chase that possum, chase that squirrel
A7 D
Chase that pretty girl 'round the world ('round the world)

With a cornstalk fiddle and a shoestring bow
Pick up your feet and put 'em on the floor (Dance the Bluegrass Boogie...etc.)

Grab that possum, put 'im in the pan,
You know he's the best eatin' critter in the land. (Dance the Bluegrass Boogie...etc.)