Jay wrote this tune for the main theme of our score for the documentary film, Brother's Keeper, by Joe Berlinger and Bruce Sinofsky. The film explores the murder trial of Delbert Ward, who lived with his three elderly brothers on their farm at the end of a dirt road in Munnsville, New York. When brother Bill Ward was found dead one morning, Delbert was arrested on charges of second-degree murder. The film shows how residents of this small town rallied to support one of their own. Before composing music for the film, we traveled to Munnsville to learn more about the people, the place, and the story.

Note: Molly capos at the 5th fret and plays out of Em position as follows:
