```
D7          G            Am          Bm                  C
Oh, I could hide 'neath the wings of the bluebird as she sings
     G          Em                  A7   D7
The six-o-clock alarm would never ring
     G          Am            Bm                C
But it rings and I rise; wipe the sleep out of my eyes.
     G      Em      C    D7      G
My shaving razor's  cold  and it  stings

```
 G                  Am        Bm                  C
You once thought of me as a white knight on his steed
 G                  Em          A7   D7
Now you know how happy I can be
            G                    Am          Bm                C
Oh and our good times start and end without dollar one to spend
     G          Em   C      D7      G
But how much, baby,  do we really need

Daydream Believer

1967 by John Stewart; perf by the Monkees

Oh, I could hide 'neath the wings of the bluebird as she sings
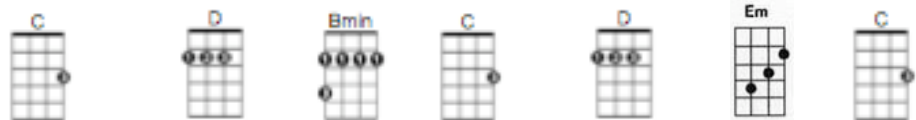

The six-o-clock alarm would never ring

But it rings and I rise; wipe the sleep out of my eyes.

My shaving razor's   cold   and it   stings
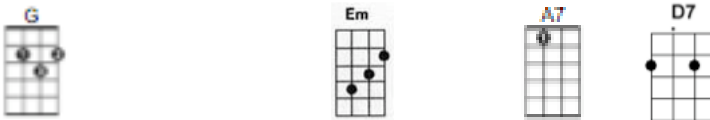

CHORUS: Cheer up, sleepy   Jean.   Oh what can it   mean   to a
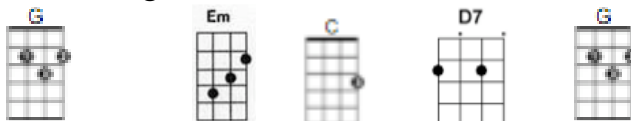

Daydream believer and a home- coming queen?

You once thought of me as a white knight on his steed

Now you know how happy I can be

Oh and our good times start and end without dollar one to spend

But how much baby   do we   really   need   CHORUS
