2. Now this parting gives me sorrow, And it almost breaks my heart,

Tell me darling will you love me, When we meet, no more to part.
Or will this parting be forever, Will there be no coming day,
When our hearts will be united, And all sorrows pass away?

3. Darling, meet me up in heaven, That's my true and earnest prayer,
If you love me here on earth dear, Then I'm sure you'll love me there.
There our hearts will be united, Free from every pain and care,
In the land of life eternal, In that city bright and fair.
