C E7 F C
I'm sittin alone, Saturday night, watching the Late Late Show

C E7 F C
A bottle of wine, some cigarettes, I got no place to go

A G F C
Well, I saw your other man today, he was wearing my brand new shoes

G F C
And I'm down to seeds and stems again, too

C E7 F C
well, I saw my old friend Bob today from up in Bowling Green

C E7 F C
He had the prettiest little gal that I'd ever seen

A G F C
But I couldn't hide my tears at all 'cause she looked just like you

G F C
And I'm down to seeds and stems again, too

F C F C
Now everybody tells me there's other ways to get high

F C A7 D7 G
They don't seem to understand, I'm too far gone to try

C E7 F C
Now these lonely memories, they're all I can't lose

G F C
And I'm down to seeds and stems again, too

C E7 F C
Well, my dog died just yesterday and left me all alone

C E7 F C
The finance company dropped by today and repossessed my home

A G F C
But tthat's just a drop in the bucket gal, compared to losing you

G F C
And I'm down to seeds and stems again, too

G F C
Got the down to seeds and stems again blues
