

Evangeline

Robbie Robertson  A

She stands on the banks of the mighty Mississippi	A
Alone in the pale moonlight	E
Waitin' for a man, a riverboat gambler	E
Said that he'd return tonight	A

They used to waltz on the banks of the mighty Mississippi	A
Lovin' the whole night through	E
He was a riverboat gambler off to make a killin'	E
And bring it on back to you	A

Chorus:

Evangeline Evangeline	D A
Curses the soul of the Mississippi Queen	E A
That pulled her man away	E A

Break

Bayou Sam from South Louisian'	A
Had gamblin' in his veins	E
Evangeline from the maritime	E
Was slowly goin' insane	A

High on the top of a Hickory Hill	A
She stands in the lightning and thunder	E
Down on the river the boat was a sinkin'	E
She watched that Queen go under	A
