

Happy Birthday

Rosana Costello IV-56

Happy Birthday to you, I hope you're doing well ,	C F C
We've gathered here for you today, as you can plainly tell,	G
So sit right back and you'll hear a tale, this time it turns out fine ,	C F C
It's not until the second verse, things start to go awry .	G C

Chorus:

Today is the day of your birth, you're looking mighty fine,	F C
Only a few white hairs I see, perhaps they could be mine.	F G
Life is an adventure, I wonder what's in store ,	C F C
Prosperity throughout the years, And many, many, more	G G ₇ C

While strolling by one day you thought you heard a little creak ,	C F C
You stopped dead in your tracks and said, "Could that have come from me?"	G
Pay no attention to that noise, it doesn't mean a thing ,	C F C
Anybody here will tell you that you're aging gracefully.	G C

Chorus

The universe burst into song the day that you arrived ,	C F C
All living beings and plants and things, they gave the ol' high-five.	G
As seasons turned you made your mark on earth in time and space ,	C F C
It's plain to see your presence makes the world a better place .	G C

Chorus

Life is an adventure, I wonder what's in store ,	C F C
Prosperity throughout the years, and many, many, more .	G G ₇ C
