C / | / G / | / C / | / C / | /
May be a rain- -y day

I'm a'going to leave this country I a'going around this world
I'm going to leave this country For the sake of one little girl

chorus: Oh I ain't gonna work tomorrow And I ain't gonna work next day
Oh I ain't gonna work tomorrow For it may be a rainy day

Well she told me that she loved me And it caused my poor heart grief
Now she's got her back turned on me she's courting whoever she please

Well I lost my money at gambling And I lost my name you see
I am nobody's darling And nobody cares for me

Don't you hear my banjo a'ringing Don't you hear it's mournful sound
Don't you hear those pretty girls laughing Standin on the cold frosty ground

Well I'll hang my head in sorrow I will hang my head and cry I'll hang my head in sorrow As my darling passes by
