

I DON'T HAVE TO PUT THE SEAT DOWN ANYMORE

By: Joe Riley Key of "A "

INTRO: A, E, A

A D
She told me it was over, then she packed up her things
E A
20 years of marriage suddenly down the drain.

D
Well the truth is plain and simple, she don't love me anymore.
E A
So why do I keep smiling as she walks out the door?

A D A
CHORUS: I don't have to put the seat down anymore,

E A
I can leave my whiskers in the sink and stay out till 3 or 4.

D A
When I come home now I can hang my close up on the floor

E A
I don't have to put the seat down anymore.

A E A
LAST: Yah know, I don't have to put the seat down anymore.

BREAK: A, D, A, E, A, D, A, E, A (Chours)

A D
Well I guess I'm gonna miss her when she's been gone awhile

E A
She made a darn good meat loaf and had a pretty smile

D
But when I start feel-in lonely I know just what I'll do

E
I'll hang her picture on the bathroom wall to chase away

A
my blues. Cause I don't >> CHORUS:
