JUST LIKE YOU By: Hot Rize Key of "C"

INTRO: C, G, G

C F C
Hector Brown he lives on a farm he's been a farmer all his life

Till he had to slow down when his heart broke down He went under G C F
a surgeon's knife. And the four kids that he raised they all live

C G
so far from home. Since his wife died last December Hector's been C F G F C all alone. And if you don't think an old man could be alone and F G C
blue. Let me tell you my friend He's just like you.

C F C
Ethel Kline she lives in the city the landlord lives out of town,

G
When the cold wind blows it chills her. Her backache gets her down
C F C
So she reads by day, and she sleeps by night. She never goes no-where.

G C F G
And scarcely anybody even knows she's there And if you don't think that woman could be alone and blue. Let me tell you my friend
G C F G

C
She's just like you.

C F C
Well I know it's not to long ago you were only twenty-one. But time
G C moves only one way you won't always be young. And if you don't think F C G
when you get old you could be alone and blue. Let me tell you my friend

C F G you've go some thinkin' to do. And if you don't think an old man can C F G C
be alone and blue. Let me tell you my friend He's just like you
