

London Homesick Blues

<sup>1</sup>
Well, when you're down on your luck,
and you ain't got a buck,
<sup>5</sup>
in London you're a goner.

Even London Bridge has fallen down,
<sup>1</sup>
and moved to Arizona,
<sup>4</sup>
and I know why.

And I'll substantiate the rumor that the English sense of humor
<sup>1</sup>
is drier than than the Texas sand.

<sup>6m</sup> You can put up your dukes, or you can bet your boots <sup>F</sup>
<sup>5</sup> but I'll leavin' just as fast as I can. <sup>5'</sup>

<sup>4</sup> The friendliest people and the purtiest women you've ever seen. <sup>5</sup> <sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>
Well, it's cold over here, and I swear
<sup>5</sup>
I wish they'd turn the heat on.

And where in the world is that pretty English girl
<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup>
I promised I would meet on the third floor.

And of the whole damn lot, the only friend I've got <sup>1</sup>
is a bottle and a cheap guitar.
<sup>6m</sup> My mind keeps roamin', my heart keeps longin' <sup>4</sup>
<sup>5</sup> to be home in a Texas bar. <sup>5'</sup>

Chorus

<sup>1</sup>
Well, I decided that I'd get my cowboy hat
<sup>5</sup>
and go down to Marble Arch Station.

'Cause when a Texan fancies he'll take his chances.
<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup>
Chances will be taken, that's for sure.

And them Limey eyes, they were eyein' a prize
<sup>1</sup>
some people call manly footwear.

<sup>6m</sup> And they said you're from down South,
<sup>4</sup>
and when you open your mouth,
<sup>5</sup> you always seem to put your foot there. <sup>5'</sup>

Repeat chorus till the cows come home
