Man of Constant Sorrow - Richard Burnett 1913; Arr.	Unic	on	Station
5 1 4 I am a man of constant sorrow 5 1
I've seen trouble all my days 5
For six long years I've been in trouble No pleasure here on earth I found For in this world I'm bound to ramble I have no friends to help me now (He has no friends to help him now )	5	1 5 1 5	4 1 4 1
It's fare thee well , my own true lover I never expect to see you again For I'm bound to ride that northern railroad Perhaps I'll die upon this train (Perhaps you'll die upon this train )	5	1 5 1 5	4 1 4 1
You can bury me in some deep valley For many years where I may lay Then you may learn to love another While I am sleeping in my grave (While he is sleeping in his grave )	5	1 5 1 5
Maybe your friends think I'm just a stranger My face you'll never will see no more But there is one pro-o-omise that is given I'll meet you on God's golden shore (He'll meet you on God's golden shore )	5	1 5 1 5	4 1 4 1
