

Man of Constant Sorrow - Richard Burnett 1913; Arr. Dylan

5 1 4
I . . am a man of constant sorrow,
5 1
I've seen trouble . . all my days.
5 1 4
I'll . . say goodbye to Colorado,
5 1
where I was born and partly raised. 5 1

5 1 4
Your . . mother says I'm a stranger,
5 1
My face you'll never see no more.
5 1 4
But . . there's one promise, darling:
5 1
I'll see you on God's golden shore. 5 1

5 1 4
Through . . this open world I'm about to ramble,
5 1
Through ice and snows, sleet and rain.
5 1 4
I'm .. 'bout to ride that morning railroad,
5 1
Perhaps I'll die on that train. 5 1

5 1 4
I'm .. going back to Colorado,
5 1
The place that I started from.
5 1 4
If . . I had known how bad you'd treat me honey
5 1
I never would have come. 5 1
