

Old Dad

Kate Power & Steve Einhorn

IV-89

When I was falling like a leaf from the tree A D A
 I heard you callin' my own name out to me E
 You picked me up before I hit the ground there beneath A D
 And brought me to a place where I could feel what I would see A E A

You gave it all in times of trouble A D A
 You never lost that easy smile E
 When I recall what it's come to mean to me D A D
 You taught me everything grows better A D
 Big or small, all you got to do is care at all A D A E A

When I was lookin' to the road for relief A D A
 I saw you crossing that old river to me E
 You said, "I heard you could use some company A D
 And I was feeling I could do with a little, too" A E A

You knew it all before I told you A D A
 You felt the call on a breath of wind E
 When I recall what I've come to share in you D A D
 It's like no other, the way we could share it all A E A

Break

When I was lookin' to the road for relief A D A
 I saw you crossing that old river to me E
 You said, "I heard you could use some company A D
 And I was feeling I could do with a little too" A E A

You knew it all before I told you A D A
 You felt the call on a breath of wind E
 When I recall what it's come to mean to me D A D
 You taught me everything grows better A D
 Big or small, all you got to do is care at all A D A E A
All you got to do is care at all D A E A
All you got to do is care at all D A E A
All you got to do is care at all D A E A