

Philadelphia Lawyer - Woody Guthrie

^C way out in Reno, Nevada,^{G7}
where romance blooms and fades,^C
A great Philadelphia lawyer^F
was in love with a Hollywood maid.^C

^C "Come, love, and we'll go ramblin'^{G7}
Down where the lights are so bright.^C
I'll win you a divorce from your^F
husband,
And we can get married tonight."^C

^C wild Bill was a gun-totin' cowboy,^{G7}
Ten notches were carved in his gun.^C
And all the boys around Reno^F
Left wild Bill's maiden alone.^C

^C One night when Bill was returning^{G7}
From ridin' the range in the cold,^C
He dreamed of his Hollywood sweetheart,^F
Her love was as lasting as gold.^C

^C As he drew near her window,^{G7}
Two shadows he saw on the shade;^C
Twas the great Philadelphia lawyer^F
Makin' love to Bill's Hollywood maid.^C

^C The night was as still as the desert,^{G7}
The moon hangin' high overhead.^C
Bill listened awhile through the^F window,
He could hear ev'ry word that he said:^C

^C "Your hands are so pretty and lovely,^{G7}
Your form's so rare and divine.^C
Come go with me to the city^F
And leave this wild cowboy behind."^C

^C Now tonight back in old Pennsylvania,^{G7}
Among those beautiful pines,^C
There's one less Philadelphia lawyer^F
In old Philadelphia tonight.^C
