

The Rose Colored Blues

Steve Hiatt IV-103

I've got a battery powered amp, an electric bass guitar E
 If I could sing a little better, I'd probably be a star.
But my life isn't perfect, there's one more thing I'd choose. A E
 No matter how hard I try, I just cant seem to get the blues. B<sub>7</sub> E

The food is delicious, the wine's above par E
 I've got a navigating system in my Honda motor car.
I've got a hi-def television, and comfortable shoes. A E
But I'd give it all up, now B<sub>7</sub> for just one chance to get the blues. E

Break

No I don't need no Humvee, no I don't need no Hog, E
 no I don't need no Korean fluorescent dog.
No, I don't need Noah's ark, I don't need no animals by twos A E
But I do need some troubles, so I can get the blues B<sub>7</sub> E

I've got my friends and my family around me all the time. E
 Sometimes it's too easy, Lord, to find a word to rhyme.
The economy's on the mend. I just heard it on the news A E
 It's getting harder and harder; It's harder than hell to get the blues B<sub>7</sub> E

Break

I've got a woman who loves me, E
 kids I adore, grandchildren playing on the living room floor.
Even when I snooze, I just never lose. A E

If things don't get worse, I'm never gonna get to sing the blues B<sub>7</sub> E
 (one more time)
 If things don't get worse, I'm never gonna get to sing the blues B<sub>7</sub> E
 (I'm gonna stop taking Prozac)
 If things don't get worse, I'm never gonna get to sing the blues B<sub>7</sub> E
