

Treachery Blues – David Anderson (C)

Came home one day,
After working so hard (*2)
Looked out and wondered,
Now who's that man in my yard.

Next morn she slipped away,
Quiet as a mouse (*2)
When I drove uptown,
Found her parked at that house.

She always grabs my paycheck,
Right out of my hand (*2)
Then her care for me,
Drifts away like sand.

Oh lordy lordy,
why does she treat me so (*2)
I know she's been cheating,
But I can't find a way to go.

She's a mean selfish lover,
Just take, just take, just take it all (*2)
We know the one that gets hurt,
Is the one to take the fall.

Oh lordy lordy lordy,
why do she treat me this way (*2)
I know she been cheating,
So why on earth do I stay.
