Unwed Fathers - John Prine

In an App(A) alachian, ()Greyhound sta(A)tion(D)
She sits there wa(A)iting, in a family w(E)ay
"Goodbye br(A)other, (D)Tell Mom I love h(A)er(D)
Tell all the ot(A)hers, (E)I'll write some(A)day"

- (A) From an teenage lo(D) ver, to an unwed mo(A) ther Kept undercover, like some bad dr(E) eam(E7) While unwed fa(A) thers, (D) they can't be bo(A) thered(D) They run like wa(A) ter, (E) through a mountain str(A) eam
- (A) In a cold and gray town, (D) a nurse say's "L(A) ay down"(D)
 'This ain't no pla(A) yground, (E) and this ain't h(A) ome'
 (A) Someone's children, (D) out having chi(A) ldren(D)
 In a gray stone bu(A) ilding, (E) all al(A) one
- (A) From an teenage lo(D) ver, to an unwed mo(A) ther Kept undercover, like some bad dr(E) eam(E7) While unwed fa(A) thers, (D) they can't be bo(A) thered(D) They run like wa(A) ter, (E) through a mountain str(A) eam
- (A) On somewhere else bound, (D) Smokey Mountain Grey(A) hound(D) She bows her h(A) ead down, (E) hummin' lul(A) labies
 (A) 'Your daddy never, (D) meant to hurt you e(A) ver'(D)
 'He just don't li(A) ve here, (E) but you've got his e(A) yes'
- (A) From an teenage lo(D) ver, to an unwed mo(A) ther Kept undercover, like some bad dr(E) eam(E7) While unwed fa(A) thers, (D) they can't be bo(A) thered(D) They run like wa(A) ter, (E) through a mountain str(A) eam

They run like wa(A)ter, (E)through a mountain str(A)eam