

walking Blues; Robert Johnson (B)

[<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BgXA-dEfnN8&t=0s>]

I, woke up this mornin, feel round for my shoes here about I got these, old walkin blues well, I just woke up this mornin feelin round out for my shoes but you know about that I got these ol walkin blues lord I, &t=35s feel like blowin, my, old lonesome home got up this mornin, my little Bern-ice was gone lord, I feel like, a-oooh my lonesome home well, I got up this mornin woh-oh all I had was gone well, &t=66s

leave this morn if I have to, woh ride the blind I feel mistreated and I, don't mind dyin Leave this morn
I have to ride the blind babe, I been mistreated, baby, and I don't mind dyin

well, &t=94s
some people tell me thatth'worried blues ain't bad worst old feelin, I most ever had some, people tell me that these, old worried, old blues ain't bad its the worst old feelin, I-I most ever had.

she got a, &t=120s elegant movement from her head down, to her toes break in on a dollar most any-where she goes ooo hoo her head down to her toes (aw honey) lord, she break in on a dollar most anywhere she goes
