

Waltzing with You

Country

Molly Mason

All these years I've lived a-lone, watching life just pass me by, so when you asked if I would dance, I was a-fraid to e-ven try. But I heard those fid-dles play-ing and sud-den-ly I knew, all I want-ed was a chance to be waltz-ing with you.
Eve-ry bod-y knew that I'd nev-er danced be-fore, but there we were to-geth-er glid-ing 'cross the floor. All the dreams I nev-er had, and all the love I nev-er knew, now I've found here in your arms while I'm WALTZ-ING WITH YOU.

©1992 Swinging Door Music. All rights reserved.

Molly wrote this song for the scene in the film, Brother's Keeper, in which the main protagonist, Delbert Ward, dances for the first time in his life. See Brother's Keeper (p. 14) for more about the film.