3. Will I roam through the fields down the mountains,
cross the land?

Wade the rivers down to the ocean sand?
Will I touch trusted friends in a whisper of the wind?
When I die, when I die.

4. Can I be with my family, can I visit with my friends?
As they spend the short time they were lent?
Will they quietly know that I really did not go?
When I die, when I die.

5. Will the ones that I love someday join me up above?
Will we laugh, will we sing, will we cry?
Together will we be through all eternity?
When I die, when I die.

6. Will I grow in the hearts of those I have known?
Will they think of me fondly now and then?
Will I live on and on when my life on earth is done?
When I die, when I die.
