

Wont You Come And Sing For Me

Hazel Dickens and Alice Gerrard

5 4 1
I feel the shadows now upon me,
4 1 5
And fair angels beckon me.
4 1
Before I go dear Christian brother,
5 4 1
Won't you come and sing for me.

Chorus:

4 1
Sing the hymns we sang together, In
5 4 1
That plain little church with the benches all worn.
4 1
How dear to my heart how precious the moment,
5 4 1
We stood shaking hands and singing the song.

5 4 1
My burden's heavy, my way has grown weary,
4 1 5
I have traveled the road that was long.
4 1
And it would warm this old heart my brother,
5 4 1
If you'd come and sing one song.

(Chorus)

5 4 1
In my home beyond that dark river,
4 1 5
Your dear faces no more I'll see.
4 1
Until we meet where there's no more sad parting,
5 4 1
Won't you come and sing for me.

(Chorus)

Wont You Come And Sing For Me

Hazel Dickens and Alice Gerrard (SSD A 72)

(instr intro: last 2 lines of chorus)

I feel the shadows now upon me,
4 1 5
And fair angels beckon to me.
4 1
Before I go, dear brothers and sisters,
5 4 1
Won't you come and sing for me.

Chorus:

we'll 4 sing the hymns, we 1 sang together, In
5 That plain little church with its benches all 4 worn. 1
4 How dear to my heart, how 1 precious the moment,
5 we 5 stood shaking hands and 4 singing our 1 songs.

My burden is heavy, my way has grown weary,
4 1 5
I have traveled the road that was long.
4 1
And it would warm this old heart my dear brother,
5 4 1
If you'd come and sing one song.

(Chorus)

5 4 1
In my home beyond the dark river,
4 1 5
Your dear face no more will I see.
4 1
Until we meet where there's no more sad parting,
5 4 1
Won't you come and sing for me.

(Chorus)
