

D EM G D
When the last rose of summer pricks my finger

D EM G
And the hot sun chills me to the bone

D EM G D
When I can't hear the song for the singer,

Bm A G
And I can't tell my pillow from a stone,

A D G D
I will walk alone by the black muddy river,

Bm A G
And sing me a song of my own,

A D G D
I will walk alone by the black muddy river,

Bm A G
And sing me a song of my own.

BLACK
RIVER

When the last bolt of sunshine hits the mountain, -- D EM G D

And the stars start to splatter in the sky, --- D EM G D

When the moon hits the southwest horizon, ---- D EM G D

With the scream of an eagle on the fly, ----- Bm A G D

I will walk alone by the black muddy river, ---- A D G D

And listen to the ripples as they moan, ----- Bm A G D

I will walk alone by the black muddy river, --- A D G D

And sing me a song of my own. --- Bm A G

Em A D Bm
Black muddy river, roll on forever,

A D A D
I don't care how deep or wide, if you've got another side,

G D G D G A D
Roll muddy river, roll muddy river, black muddy river, roll.

When it seems like the night will last forever, ---- D EM G D

And there's nothing left to do but count the years, -- D EM G

When the strings of my heart begin to sever, ---- D EM G D

And stones fall from my eyes instead of tears, -- Bm A G

I will walk alone, by the black muddy river, ---- A D G D

And dream me a dream of my own, --- Bm A G

I will walk alone, by the black muddy river, --- A D G D

And sing me a song of my own // sing me a song of my own - Bm A G //

Bm A G D
