"The Freewheelin Bob Dylan" (1963)

Don't Think Twice, It's All Right

G E   D   Em   C   D
It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, Babe, it don't matter anyhow, G   D   EM   C   D A d it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe, if you don't know by now.
G   G7   C
When the rooster crows at the break of dawn, look out your window and I'll G be gone
G   D   Em   C   G   D7   G
You're the reason I'm travlin on, don't think twice it's all right.

It ain't no use in turnin on your light, babe, that light I never knowed
And it ain't no use in turnin on your light, babe, I'm on the dark side of the road.
Still I wish there was somethin you would do or say to try and make me change
      my mind and stay
We never did too much talkin anyway, so don't think twice it's all right.

I'm walkin down that long lonesome road, babe, where I'm bound I can't tell.
But goodbye's too good a word, gal, so I'll just say fare thee well.
I ain't sayin you treated me unkind, you could have done better but I don't min
You just kind-a wasted my precious time. But don't think twice it's all right.

ain't no use in callin out my name, gal, like you never did before,
It ain't no use in callin out my name, gal, I can't hear you any more.
I'm thinkin and awonderin all the way down the road, I once loved a woman a child I am told,
I'd giver her my heart but she wanted my soul. But don't think twide, it's all right.

Intro: C G Am Am C G C C

         C              G              Am
Well it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe,
F                    C       G
If'n you don't know by now.
   C          G`            Am
It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe.
D7               G7
It don't matter any-how,
            C                    C7
When the rooster crows at the break of dawn
F                       D7
look out your window and I'll be gone
C        G        Am      F
You're the reason I'm travelin' on,
     C         G          C
but don't think twice, it's al-right.
