Traditional

1. Dar - ling I have come to tell you, — Though it al - most breaks my heart, —
2. Don't you hear the night birds cry - ing, — On some dark and lone - ly sea, —
3. One more kiss be - fore I leave you, — One more kiss be - fore we part. —

That be - fore the morn - ing dar - ling, — We'll be man - y miles a - part. —
While of oth - ers you are think - ing, — Won't you some - times think of me? —
You have caused me lots of trou - ble, — Dar - ling, you have broke my heart. —

Cho: Don't this road look rough and rock - y? — Don't that sea lookwide and deep? —

Don't my ba - by look the sweet - est, — When she's in my arms a - sleep? —
