Man of Constant Sorrow - Trad. (arr: Soggy Bottom Boys)

```
E7      E                   A
I am a man of constant sorrow                    e E A
           B                E
I've seen trouble all my days                      B E
E7          E               A
I bid fare-well to old Kentucky                  e E A
               B               E
The place where I was born & raised                B E
(The place where he was born & raised)
```

```
For six long years I've been in trouble          e E A
No pleasure here on earth I found                  B E
For in this world I'm bound to ramble            e E A
I have no friends to help me now                   B E
(He has no friends to help him now)
```

```
It's fare thee well, my own true lover           e E A
I never expect to see you again                    B E
For I'm bound to ride that northern railroad     e E A
Perhaps I'll die upon this train                   B E
(Perhaps you'll die upon this train)
```

```
You can bury me in some deep valley              e E A
For many years where I may lay                     B E
Then you may learn to love another               e E A
While I am sleeping in my grave                    B E
(While he is sleeping in his grave)
```

```
Maybe your friends think I'm just a stranger     e E A
My face you'll never will see no more              B E
But there is one pro-o-omise that is given       e E A
I'll meet you on God's golden shore                B E
(He'll meet you on God's golden shore)
```

Kickoff:

```
E7          B7                  E
In constant sorrow all through his days....      e B E
```
