

Wearing Out Your Walking Shoes

Hank Williams

Verse I:

G

Well you can't live with 'em you can't live without 'em,

Yes there's something mighty necessary 'bout 'em!

C

G

A woman will give you the blues!

D7

C

G

She'll have you pulling out your hair, and wearing out your walking shoes!

Verse II:

G

Well they just keep nagging until your head is sagging,

There ain't a wink a-sleeping when they start in weeping!

C

G

A woman will give you the blues!

D7

C

G

She'll have you biting off your nails, and wearing out your walking shoes!

Verse III:

G

It's a losing gamble when you start to ramble,

Oh Lord how you miss 'em and you long to kiss 'em!

C

G

Cause a woman will give you the blues!

D7

C

G

She'll have you tossing in your sleep, and wearing out your walking shoes!

Verse IV:

G

Well you can't live with 'em you can't live without 'em,

It's better to talk with 'em than to talk about 'em!

C

G

A woman will give you the blues!

D7

C

G

She'll have you talking to yourself and wearing out your walking shoes!
