D A7 D
I have the invitation the you sent me
A7 D D7

You wanted me to see you change your name
G D

I couldn't stand to see you wed another
A7 D D7

But dear I hope you're happy just the same
G D

Wedding bells are ringing in the chapel
A7 D D7

That should be ringing out for you and me
G D

Down the aisle with someone else you're walking
A7 D

So wedding bells will never ring for me

D break A7 D
I planned a little cottage in the valley

A7 D D7
I even bought a little band of gold

G D
I thought someday I'd place it on your finger

A7 D D7
But now the future looks so dark and cold

G D
Wedding bells are ringing in the chapel

A7 D D7
I hear the children laughing out with glee

G D
At home alone I hang my head in sorrow

A7 D
Those wedding bells will never ring for me

D break A7 D
I fancy that I see a bunch of roses

A7 D D7
A blossom from an orange tree in your hair

G D
And while the organ plays I love you truly

A7 D D7
Please let me pretend that I am there

G D
Wedding bells are ringing in the chapel

A7 D D7
Ever since the day you set me free

G D
I knew someday that you would wed another

A7 D
But wedding bells will never ring for me
