

Wild Side of Life

*Intro steel
A7 - D*

6

D You wouldn't read my letter if I wrote you G
A7 You asked me not to call you on the phone D
But there's something I'm wanting to tell you G
A7 So I wrote it in the words of this song D

I didn't know God made honky tonk angels G
A7 I should have known you'd never make a wife D
You gave up the only one that ever loved you G
A7 And went back to the wild side of life D

Break

The glamor of the gay night life has lured you G
A7 To the places where the wine and liquor flows D
There you wait to be anybody's baby G
A7 And forget the only love you'll ever know D

I didn't know God made honky tonk angels G
A7 I should have known you'd never make a wife D
You gave up the only one that ever loved you G
A7 And went back to the wild side of life D
